A WHOLESALE EXPULSION.

Sixty-Four Cadets Sent Home for Insubordination.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April &-The Board of Vivitors of the South Carolina Military Academy to-day expelled the rebellion which took place at the academy on the 3d of April. The cadets had become incensed at the conduct of Cadet Canty, who had reported men for breakand they resolved to force him out of the institution. A letter was first sent to Canty's father, asking for his withdrawal, and when this failed of effect the boys and waen this failed of effect the boys signed a pledge to resort to violence, if necessary, in expelling Canty. They at-tempted to earry out their design on the night of April 3d, and when they were met and opposed by the superintendent and commandant, the latter Lieutenant McDonald. United States army, they broke into open rebellion. They refused to obey orders, and rioted around the building all night, the police having to be called in. A meeting of the Board of Visitors was called at once, and has been in session for several days. The order for expulsion gave the cadets twenty-four hours to leave the building.

Virginia Murder Case. WELCH, W. VA., April 8.-(Special.)

It is now positively asserted that William Foster, after being given morphine and then robbed, was buried alive. It is reported that certain men told the officers at Keystone that they saw two men carry Foster's body from the house the night he disappeared. He was alive then and was found only three hundred yards from the place. New developments in the case are turning up almost every hour, and a number of other parties are hour, and a number of other parties are being watched by officers to prevent their escape, as the evidence against them is not strong enough to warrant arrest.
